The 2018 UnitedHealthcare Winston Salem Open is set to begin today on the Champions practice range at Silver Creek Golf Club in Wilson, N.C. A closing ceremony will be held on Thursday evening. Matt Read: "I look forward to being back in the one event I truly enjoy competing in. There's a lot of excellent golf being played in this country, but I would say the closest people in the world to the championship conditions is at the U.S. Open. It's a lot different. It's a lot more complicated. I've never played a tournament where if you can't make a putt it's over. But, I also like the fact that there are 16 guys over here [playing] on one of the most difficult courses in the world. It's fun."

Keegan Bradley: "One of the things I'm most looking forward to are the crowds. I just really enjoy the atmosphere and the fans. That's what a tournament is all about for me, is to give myself a chance to play in front of people who appreciate it and want to be there." Cristie Kerr: "I'm really looking forward to it. I think what makes the U.S. Open special for me is that it's a national championship. For golfers, you don't get that anywhere else. I don't care if it's in Japan or Korea, the U.S. Open is special." Brandon Barden: "I'm really looking forward to seeing the community, the volunteers and to be honest seeing how the golf is shaping up. It's been a while since I've been at Silver Creek. For me, it's always nice to come back and rekindle some good memories from five years ago. It's fun to be back and get a feel for the course again." Justin Thomas: "I'm really looking forward to this tournament. The experience of being a part of the largest field of the UnitedHealthcare Winston Salem Open is a great experience. The fans are some of the best in the game. The stadium, the atmosphere, it's just a great event and I'm looking forward to being a part of it."
